“CATHOLICISM” REDISCOVERED

Are you interested in learning more about your Catholic faith, more about our Church and its history, or more about Sacred Art & Architecture and how it connects to our faith? If so, you are invited to join our tri-parish collaboration (St. Joe, St. John Nepomuk, Sacred Heart) for the critically-acclaimed, groundbreaking series, *Catholicism, a portion of which is also set to air in November on PBS. Fr. Robert Barron, a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago and head of “Word on Fire” Catholic media, uses art, architecture, literature, music and all the treasures of the Church to examine major themes within the Church. To make it more convenient, choose either Monday evenings from 6:00-7:30pm at Sacred Heart’s Haban Hall (Oct. 31, Nov. 7th, and Nov 14th) or Thursday mornings from 10:30am-Noon at St. John Nepomuk’s Rectory living room (Nov. 3rd, 10th, 17th). There is no cost to attend... but free-will donations are welcome. For more information or to register, please call Mark Lyons at 634-3607 or email him at lyonsm@archmil.org. REMEMBER YOUR DEPARTED LOVED ONES

During the month of November, Sacred Heart Parish annually remembers our parishioners who have died during the past year. We have sent letters to the families of the deceased, inviting them to a special Mass of Remembrance to be celebrated on November 2nd at 7:00 p.m. This is an excellent opportunity for our faith community to join these families in prayer and support and to remember all our beloved dead. The Book of Remembrance, in which the names of any deceased can be written, is in the vestibule of the church for all to write the names of their deceased family and friends whom they would like remembered at Masses during November.
