WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

February 6th, 2011

Prayer is a moving force in vocation development. Prayer is effective; prayer is powerful; prayer is essential. Few are called to priesthood or religious life, but all are called to pray for vocations.

“Lord, your Church is in need.

Touch the hearts of many within our parish with the desire to serve you.

Call forth from this community sisters, brothers, deacons, priests and lay leaders.

Help us to live lives that will nurture childhood trust into adult commitment.

May this parish be a source of hope and a source of ministers for your Church, your people and your world. Amen.”

New Year Gratitude

I want to express my sincere gratitude, along with our staff and the entire parish, to those who worked to make the Christmas/Epiphany season at Sacred Heart so fine: those who decorated the church, the choirs, the readers at Mass, the extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, the Mass Servers, and those who are saying to themselves now "I wonder if he will remember me?" and I haven't. I thank the staff who usually get involved on all levels at one time or another in the course of their day and in particular the maintenance people who live with the impression that they have a hundred bosses. To those who remembered me with cards and gifts I say thank you with sincere appreciation. I try to acknowledge them when I get a chance to speak with you after Mass and other times and I try to pen a note at least by Easter after which it is a lost cause. My mother worked eleven years for Johnson Wax, as it was known in those days, until my sister was on the way. She had beautiful hand writing and addressed all the wedding invitations for H. F. Johnson and his bride in addition to her job as head of the service department. If you think I am hinting for a personal secretary, you're right on. My prayer for you is that the New Year will find you closer to Jesus Christ, the only way to have a truly happy new year.
