REFLECTING ON THE READINGS

January 8th - Epiphany of the Lord

Today's feast day celebrates the manifestation of God in Christ and the extension of God's saving love to all people. This revelation of God's saving action is not just a past event we gather to remember, but a present and on-going reality the Church is charged to announce. As faithful stewards in the year 2012, we are called to proclaim the wonder of God's ultimate gift, a message that remains relevant today, tomorrow and for all time.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

January 9-14, 2012

Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This week is National Vocation Awareness Week, a special time in which the church prays for the renewal and strengthening of vocations of dedicated people as married and single people, men to serve as priests, deacons and brothers, and women as religious sisters. Let your life proclaim good news!

8 Ways We Can Help Nurture Vocations

Vatican II taught us that, through our Baptism, we all are called to holiness. Each of us must nurture our vocation and others' vocations. This applies in a special way to encouraging priestly and religious vocations, whether we be parents, grandparents, uncles and aunts or mentors. Here's how:

Be faith-filled people. Pray for guidance in decisions, and seek to deepen your relationship with God. Let Christian values guide you.

Be Generous and of service to others.

Pray. Let the children see you pray and pray with them in ordinary and extraordinary circumstances.

Share faith. Talk with children about how faith affects your life.

Make and demand sacrifice. Help children see both by example and by what you expect of them that a holy and happy life involves sacrifice.

Stay in touch. Get to know priests and religious by interaction with them as opportunities arise so that you are comfortable with them and understand their commitment.

Educate. Teach children you know about the option of a call to religious life or priesthood as well as the call to marriage or single life.

Support. If a child or young adult speaks of a desire to be a priest, deacon, brother or sister, be supportive.
