IN LOVING MEMORY

Our sympathy and the promise of our prayers to Kristen Hartung and family on the death of her father, Bill Phalen and to Ruth Greco and family on the death of her husband, Robert Greco. WEEKLY REFLECTIONS

The parable of the workers in the vineyard certainly goes counter to the values of capitalism. The owner does not only keep his work force at a minimum, he hires more workers at the end of the day! He does not haggle to hire the worker at the lowest pay he can. He offers them a fair wage for their labor. Then, he pays everyone for a full day's work! What does this tell us about how God would have us treat others? Do we take advantage of others or are we generous with them?

The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.

PASTORAL CARE CORNER

Volunteers Needed for Senior Ministry

I spoke at all the Masses on August 6th and 7th to introduce myself as the new Pastoral Associate at Sacred Heart. I told you that I would need your help visiting the homebound and those in nursing homes. Some of you told me that you would be interested. I would appreciate it if you would fill out the form at the bottom of this request. I am also asking those who are homebound and would want a Communion visit to please let the parish office know who you are. I would also like to know the parishioners that are in nursing homes and the home that they are in. I realize that we have a list of people in both categories but I would like to make sure that our list is up to date. I also told you that if you have questions about long term care and are facing this issue for the first time my wife, Marsha, can be reached at 639-0699. You may return your response to the parish office or drop in the offertory basket. Thank you.
