WEEKLY REFLECTIONS

What are your priorities - what guides your choices? The question posed in the Gospel about paying taxes can easily be left to a simplistic interpretation. The message goes much deeper. If God is truly our sun and center, then everything else has to be viewed in light of God's love and the command to love one another. That is the true yard stick or plumb-line that we must use in making our decisions.

*I am the Lord and there is no other.
There is no God besides me.

FOR OUR BENEFACTORS

Grant, O Lord, for Your name's sake to reward with eternal life all those who have been good to us.

Amen

MASS SCHEDULE CHANGE

Discussions were held at the last Parish Council meeting regarding daily Masses and the fact that it is getting harder and harder to find available priests to cover all Masses. To help alleviate this situation it was decided that effective January 1, 2012, the Friday daily Mass at Sacred Heart will be eliminated. Tuesday through Thursday daily Masses will continue at Sacred Heart on their current schedule. You are welcome to attend Mass at St. Joseph's on Friday mornings at 8 a.m.

2012 MASS INTENTIONS

The Parish Office will start taking Mass Intentions for 2012 on Monday, October 24, 2011. In fairness to others, please do not ask for mass times over the phone or prior to the 24th. Due to publishing deadlines, no mass intentions will be taken on Tuesday afternoons. Contact the parish office at 634-5526 to set a time to come in. As in the past, you will be limited to no more than 2 weekend Masses and 4 weekday Masses for any one individual.

REMEMBER YOUR DEPARTED LOVED ONES

During the month of November, Sacred Heart Parish annually remembers our parishioners who have died during the past year. We have sent letters to the families of the deceased, inviting them to a special Mass of Remembrance to be celebrated on November 2nd at 7:00 PM. This is an excellent opportunity for our faith community to join these families in prayer and support and to remember all our beloved dead. The Book of Remembrance, in which the names of any deceased can be written, is in the vestibule of the church for all to write the names of their deceased family and friends whom they would like remembered in Masses during November.

HABAN HALL

Haban Hall usage policy is available upon request from the Parish office.

Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart and St. Joseph Parishes

I am greeting you on October 12th, Columbus Day. There was no mail Monday in observance of 518th anniversary of his landing in our hemisphere. Poor Columbus! He has been the victim of political correctness for a good number of years now and I am surprised that we still have his holiday. Thank you to federal and state employees who see to it. Columbus has been blamed for a you-name-it-litany of crimes while his contributions are usually ascribed to others. Among other things he gave us horses and long horn cattle and introduced the potato, the tomato, chocolate and the chili pepper to Europe. He was a brilliant navigator as well as a courageous sailor and a persevering human being, the only kind who make it in this world. What is always left out in assessing a person of stature, whether George Washington or Pope Pius XII, is the real man living in and dealing with the real world of his time. When Columbus sailed back to Spain after his first visit he left a small community behind. When he returned he found that they had all been slain by the natives. There was no Mr. Nice Guy after that. As for polio and small pox they would have come as well with those who followed after Columbus and are liberally given credit for what he accomplished. My memories of Columbus are positive. No, I didn't know him personally, but I knew who Fredric March was, the two-time Oscar-winning actor from Racine who starred in the British film, Christopher Columbus. He was a classmate of my mother's then known as Fredrick Bickel at Racine High School. All the Catholic grade school kids went to the Venetian Theater to see Christopher Columbus in 1949. That was well before the Nanny state and people had better things to do than whine about being politically correct.
